February Events At the Library

By Kathy Stutzman, WCPL Public Relations Manager

Warsaw Community Public Library has a variety of programs for the month of February. Something for all ages! For children, we have Story Hours for preschoolers that include crafts, and activities for toddlers and their mommies. For teens, WCPL offers a girl's movie night, two Drop-In Zones, and a unique "gaming without electricity" event. Adults haven't been left out either! There will be several computer classes, a calligraphy class, an opportunity to participate in a new reading group, a book sale, an eAudiobooks contest, and a special program about heart health.
