NEW COLLECTION ALERT! LIBRARY OF THINGS

Have you seen the Library of Things display in the Adult Reference area? Maybe you've walked past the display of cake pans and other items and wondered what it was all about. Well, wonder no more! WCPL is excited to be continually adding things to our very popular Library of Things – a collection of nontraditional items available for checkout.

Some of our most popular items are our cake pans. The library has a variety of designs and styles, such as a pony, a race car, a pirate ship, and Mickey Mouse. We also loan out a set of decorating tips to be used to help frost the cake!

Some of our other collection items include a telescope, a metal detector, a sewing machine, binoculars, and a guitar. We also have a lot of Unlock! Adventure escape room games available for checkout! Need a fun kid's birthday party? Consider checking out the bubble machine, play parachute, boom whackers, or our Yardzee or shuffleboard set! Keep your eyes open for new items to be added – right now we have several things on order, including a CD player/Bluetooth speaker, a bread machine, and a food dehydrator!

If you have any ideas or suggestions for new items to be added to our Library of Things collection – please let us know! We are excited about the many future possibilities!

Come learn how to create a wonderful family meal in a short amount of time. You will be “Cooking under Pressure” in no time. — Denise Keller, Adults Programming Administrator

CHECK OUT OUR BLOGS!

If you have not noticed yet, we have moved the WCPL Reviews and eBook blogs over from WordPress to our website. Our eBook blog contains everything you want or need to know

Do you ever get tired of listening to critics when it comes to their reviewing of films or books? It would seem that these critics rarely agree with the status quo. If you're thinking about reading that new bestseller or viewing that new DVD release but not sure if it's worth the time and effort, WCPL reviews blog just might be for you. Check it out and see if we have reviewed a book or film you're interested in seeing. (<https://www.warsawlibrary.org/explore/blog/>) If we've not yet reviewed it and you feel we should or would like to review a film or book for us, contact us.
